

2022 ATHENA Finalist

Cindy Green-Deutsch

Cindy Green-Deutsch is a Banking Center Manager / Assistant Vice President for Old National Bank overseeing the DeKalb Lincoln Hwy location since early 2018. Cindy came to DeKalb in 2007, and immediately felt at home. She began her career in banking in 2009 as an assistant branch manager. In 2016, she moved to First Midwest Bank, now Old National Bank, to become a personal banker and moved to management in 2018.

She is a graduate of Blackburn College in physical education and received her Master's in Sports Management at Western Illinois University, spending the first eight years of her professional career in collegiate athletics.

Community service is her passion, serving on numerous boards and committees that support enrichment and enhancement not only for the city of DeKalb, but the entire county. She is a board member for Kishwaukee United Way, Voluntary Action Center, and the DeKalb Chamber of Commerce. She is also a member of the DeKalb Chamber's Leadership Advisory Committee and their Ambassador program. Additionally, she's been with the Shabbona Fire Department where she volunteers as an EMT.

Cindy's free time is spent on the golf course, softball field, or a craft fair where she has a small candle business with her sister. She is blessed with a beautiful family including her husband Jamie, sons and wives, Christian and Lexi, Anthony and Haley, and daughter Taylor, along with two grandsons, Brantley and Bennett.
