2024 Women of Accomplishment Nomination Form

Women of Accomplishment is a program created out of the DeKalb Chamber of Commerce that recognizes retired women who continue to be a leader and mentor within the community and exemplify the traits of the ATHENA Award.

Woman of Accomplishment nominees must be retired or no longer working in their career in DeKalb County, Illinois.

Women of Accomplishment nominees will be evaluated according to the following criteria established by the national ATHENA Award Program and the DeKalb Chamber ATHENA Committee:

- Serves as mentor or role model for helping women reach their full leadership potential
- Demonstrated excellence, creativity, and initiative in their past business or profession
- Provides valuable service by devoting time and energy to improve the quality of life for others in the community
- Nominees cannot be running for public office at the time of their nomination

The nominator is responsible for getting three people to write letters of support for the nominee (the nominator can write one of the three letters). The nominator is also responsible for getting the nominee to complete the nominee questionnaire to fill in any missing information. See separate form for letter of support questions. Honorees are required to attend the ATHENA Award Reception at the Egyptian Theatre on Thursday, October 10th.
