Emma Fiorini-DeKalb School District 428

Emma Fiorini is a proud mom to two smart daughters who keep her life equal parts joyful and delightfully chaotic. A University of Iowa alum, she now wrangles something far more intense than Hawkeye coursework—federal and state grants. As the Grant Manager for DeKalb School District 428, Emma juggles budgets, deadlines, and district dreams.

When she's not decoding state regulations, Emma can be found doing CrossFit (because picking heavy things up on purpose is her love language), yoga (to recover from CrossFit), or in the kitchen cooking something new that her children may or may not actually eat. She thrives on 80's movies, discovering new music, and home improvement projects that—despite her best intentions—seem determined to last forever.

A plant enthusiast with a questionable success rate, Emma keeps buying greenery anyway, proving she's both an optimist and a determined learner. Above all, she loves gathering with family and friends, trying new things, and laughing often.
