Meet 2025-2026 Class Member
Robin Borgione- Egyptian Theatre

Robin Borgione is a proud member of the 2025-2026 DeKalb Chamber of Commerce Leadership Academy. She is an accomplished fundraising professional with more than 15 years of experience dedicated to advancing community-focused organizations. She currently serves as the Development Director for the Egyptian Theatre in DeKalb, IL, where she is able to leverage her expertise in strategic planning, donor relations, and dynamic campaign management to support the historic venue's mission and growth.

Robin holds an Associate of Arts degree from Carl Sandburg College, where she was also a member of the Women's basketball team - go, Chargers! She has a Bachelor of Arts in Communication Arts from Benedictine University. Each of these educational experiences provided her with a strong foundation for success in fund development and outreach.

For the past 10 years, Robin and her family have proudly called Oswego, IL home. She and her husband, Paul, have three children: Olivia, Russell, and Miles. When she is not at the theatre, Robin enjoys pursuing creative hobbies like sewing and do-it-yourself home projects. She and her family enjoy trying new foods, travelling, spending quality time watching movies and spoiling their cats: Goose and Chewie.
