Tiffany Howard - Old National Bank

Tiffany Howard is a Relationship Banker II at Old National Bank in DeKalb, Illinois, passionate about helping people feel confident in their financial decisions. Having grown up visiting family in the DeKalb area, Tiffany has seen the community grow and loves being part of its progress. Her early passion for teaching has carried into her banking career, where she uses those skills to educate and empower clients. She thrives on building genuine connections and guiding people toward solutions that fit their unique goals. Tiffany believes banking is more than numbers—it's about trust, education, and planning for the future.

Outside of work, Tiffany enjoys spending time with her family, especially her longtime partner, Zeke and their two amazing boys. When NFL season rolls around, you'll find her in full game-day spirit, cheering loudly for the Buffalo Bills—because for Tiffany, football Sundays are all about family, fun, and Bills pride! Her career goal is to continue growing within the financial industry, developing her expertise, and eventually moving into a leadership role where she can mentor others and make an even greater impact.
